My family has enjoyed the complete reduction of intrusive telemarketing calls to our home since joining the Wisc. No Call list. I would NOT want a change to the existing $$ law that would allow Bank Associations an exemption. For that matter, I don't want any exemptions granted other than those currently exempt.

Prior to the no call legislation, our phone rang constantly after what one would assume to be normal business hours. Don't let them back!